

Elevated within a forested enclave close to Whistler Village, Canada's newest Museum offers a stunning backdrop for your event.

The Audain Art Museum, designed by internationally-acclaimed Patkau Architects, features an outstanding permanent boutique collection of historical and contemporary regional works of art, complemented with changing world-class special exhibitions. The reception hall and galleries provide the perfect location for gatherings of all sizes, where guests will enjoy the surrounding artwork set amongst a stunning natural environment.

Individuals and organizations hosting events here will be contributing to our not-for-profit public institution's vision to ensure access to the best of British Columbian art.
