Whistler's New Full Day Education Program is designed to complement the BC Curriculum through focusing on big ideas, content, curricular competencies and cross-curricular learning. These programs enable students to critically and creatively express their own identity, voice and ideas. All programs are suitable for grades K through 7, with custom options available for secondary school groups.

10 am – 12 pm Morning Session at Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre: What We Treasure

An experience that focuses on an overview of what is important to the first inhabitants of this territory from past to present. Throughout the tour, students will view artifacts and hear stories of the ancient traditions and current lifestyles of the Squamish & Lil'wat peoples. Tours begin with a welcome song and inspiring film and ends with the making of an Cedar Rope Craft for each student to take home as a special keepsake.

12 pm Lunch Break at Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre

1 pm – 3 pm Afternoon Session at Audain Art Museum: Copper, Cedar and Wool: Explore Art from Northwest Coastal First Nations

Students will explore how historic and contemporary BC Coastal First Nations artists have used their knowledge and respect of natural materials to create timeless works of art. Through direct comparison and observation, students will discover the elements, materials, and stories found within these artworks and how they have transformed over time, while also having the opportunity to creatively express their own identity in our art-making Studio.

Booking Details The cost for a full day guided program is $10 per student + GST, lunch and transportation not included. Adult chaperones will receive free admission. Schools will be invoiced directly after their visit. Two weeks advance notice is required for all cancellations.
